Daily Announcements

Friday, January 11, 2019

Reminder To Serve Detentions...

If you have earned lunch, after school, or Saturday detentions due to tardiness, you must serve those by Tuesday, 1/15, or risk additional consequences.

Local Scholarship App Available

The Local Scholarship application is now available for seniors. This is an opportunity to apply for about 20 scholarships with ONE application.

Through the generosity of local organizations and residents, these scholarships are offered only to HHS graduating seniors. Students planning to attend 2-year or 4-year schools are encouraged to apply. The application can be found at <https://www.hamilton.k12.wi.us/wp-content/uploads/2018/12/local-scholarship-application.pdf>. Deadline is 2/15/19.

Hamilton Girls Softball April

Color Run Our girls' softball team is hosting a color run on Saturday,

April 20, at 8AM at Hamilton High School. You are guaranteed a cool t-shirt, a medal, and a color packet if you register before April 5.

<https://secure.getactivefundraising.com/event/2019--Hamilton-High-School---Sussex-WI>.

Ski and Snowboarders

Be ready to board the buses outside the cafeteria doors as soon as school releases TODAY. For those of you who need to store your gear, you can drop it off in the Little Theatre. Enter through the set of doors on the right and follow the signs!

Swim and Dive

Our MSG boys swim and dive team made a splash at Waukesha North last night. Every member of the team competed in a "new to them" event or two. Despite this, they narrowly fell 89 to 87. Notable swims were Joseph Poulsen in the 400 free relay, Ryan Ciolkosz in the 200 free relay, Austin Brown in the 200 free, and Mason Stimson in the 100 back.
