Hamilton’s Drama Society invites you to attend a special performance of “Butterflies and Budapest: Two Stories of Children in the Holocaust.” Drama students will perform their state-qualifying one-act play, “I Never Saw Another Butterfly,” by Celeste Raspanti, which is based on a collection of works of art and poetry by Jewish children who lived in the Terezin concentration camp. The title comes from a poem written by a young man who was incarcerated in Terezin and later killed at Auschwitz. After the 40-minute performance, Eva Zaret, a Holocaust survivor, will speak about her real-life experiences as a child in the Budapest Ghetto. The event is free and open to the public. It begins at 6:30PM TOMORROW evening in the Hamilton Fine Arts Center. This is an amazing opportunity; please join us!

Student Weekly Book Recommendation

Slayer by Kiersten White

Into every generation a Slayer is born...

Nina and her twin sister, Artemis, are far from normal. It’s hard to be when you grow up at the Watcher’s Academy, which is a bit different from your average boarding school. Here teens are trained as guides for Slayers—girls gifted with supernatural strength to fight the forces of darkness. But while Nina’s mother is a prominent member of the Watcher’s Council, Nina has never embraced the violent Watcher lifestyle. Instead she follows her instincts to heal, carving out a place for herself as the school medic.

Until the day Nina’s life changes forever.

Thanks to Buffy, the famous (and infamous) Slayer that Nina’s father died protecting, Nina is not only the newest Chosen One—she’s the last Slayer, ever. Period.

As Nina hones her skills with her Watcher-in-training, Leo, there’s plenty to keep her occupied: a monster fighting ring, a demon who eats happiness, a shadowy figure that keeps popping up in Nina’s dreams...

But it’s not until bodies start turning up that Nina’s new powers will truly be tested—because someone she loves might be next.

One thing is clear: Being Chosen is easy. Making choices is hard. - Goodreads.com

Senior pictures are due by Friday, 11/29 at 3PM. No photos accepted after that time. To submit your picture, join the yearbook group on Classroom using code: snmwxr. Look for the senior photo assignment and submit through there. Your photographer will not be able to directly submit your photos. Questions? See Ms. Hammer in Room 20A.

Attendance Matters Contest
Hamilton is participating in “Attendance Matters” in conjunction with the Milwaukee Bucks. Students who have perfect attendance during the month of November will receive a complimentary ticket offer to a Milwaukee Bucks home game. On December 6, those eligible students can come to the office to pick up their “Attendance Matters” form.

Charger Baseball Mandatory Meeting
If you plan to try out for baseball in 2020, it is expected that you and your parents attend a meeting on Wednesday, December 11 at 6PM at Hamilton in the IMC. If you are unable to attend, you need to be excused by either Coach Seely or Coach Schramek. You can email OR tell them in person. If you do not attend this meeting (or do not get excused from the meeting), it will be assumed you do not plan to try out for baseball. Coach Schramek’s email schrmi@hamilton.k12.wi.us or Coach Seely’s email seelju@hamilton.k12.wi.us – Thank you.

Bucks Tickets for 3.0+ GPA
Students in grades 10-12 who had a 2018-2019 2nd semester GPA of 3.0 and above qualify for a free ticket to a Milwaukee Bucks game. Eligible students may pick up the order form in the office. Parents and students can check on Infinite Campus (Reports>Unofficial Transcript) to see if they qualify.

Attention ALL Fall Athletes: Please check your school email for a sports program evaluation regarding the fall sport in which you just participated. Thank you.
Principal’s Advisory Council
If you have some ideas that you would like to share with Mrs. Newcomer, this opportunity is for you! The PAC is a new club that will start in November. The general idea is for students to have a forum to COMMUNICATE with Mrs. Newcomer and TAKE ACTION. The club will write a mission and vision statement. Anyone is welcome! The more diverse, the better! This is YOUR school. Come share with Mrs. Newcomer what you would like to see happening in it! The club will meet TODAY in the cafeteria during Advisement. If you can’t make it to the meeting, please make an appointment with Mrs. Newcomer to voice your ideas.

The unforgettable story of two young women—one living, one dead—dealing with loss, desire, and the fragility of the American dream during WWII.

When Frankie's mother died and her father left her and her siblings at an orphanage in Chicago, it was supposed to be only temporary—just long enough for him to get back on his feet and be able to provide for them once again. That's why Frankie's not prepared for the day that he arrives for his weekend visit with a new woman on his arm and out-of-state train tickets in his pocket.

Now Frankie and her sister, Toni, are abandoned alongside so many other orphans—two young, unwanted women doing everything they can to survive.

And as the embers of the Great Depression are kindled into the fires of World War II, and the shadows of injustice, poverty, and death walk the streets in broad daylight, it will be up to Frankie to find something worth holding on to in the ruins of this shattered America—every minute of every day spent wondering if the life she's able to carve out will be enough. - Goodreads.com

Author of Fangirl and Eleanor and Park

The story is supposed to be over.
Simon Snow did everything he was supposed to do. He beat the villain. He won the war. He even fell in love. Now comes the good part, right? Now comes the happily ever after...
So why can’t Simon Snow get off the couch?
What he needs, according to his best friend, is a change of scenery. He just needs to see himself in a new light...

That’s how Simon and Penny and Baz end up in a vintage convertible, tearing across the American West.

They find trouble, of course. (Dragons, vampires, skunk-headed things with shotguns.) And they get lost. They get so lost, they start to wonder whether they ever knew where they were headed in the first place...

After a year of college, Pablo is working at his local twenty-four-hour deli, selling overpriced snacks to brownstone yuppies. He’s dodging calls from the student loan office and he has no idea what his next move is.

Leanna Smart’s life so far has been nothing but success. Age eight: Disney Mouseketeer; Age fifteen: first #1 single on the US pop chart; Age seventeen, tenth #1 single; and now, at Age nineteen...life is a queasy blur of private planes, weird hotel rooms, and strangers asking for selfies on the street.

When Leanna and Pab randomly meet at 4:00 a.m. in the middle of a snowstorm in Brooklyn, they both know they can’t be together forever. So, they keep things on the down-low and off Instagram for as long as they can. But it takes about three seconds before the world finds out... - Goodreads

Interesting fact: “Choi has been candid about her own struggles with an eating disorder, which she says has modulated so much of her mood and her life for a long time. In a way, Choi says, this book was a kind of check-in: Could she still romanticize and enjoy these foods that she genuinely loves, without triggering anything within herself? The answer turned out to be: Yes, she can.” - Eater.com

Spooky Books That Will Get You in the Halloween Mood!

Horror fans who watched The Ring and immediately wanted more need to pick up Rin Chupeco’s suspenseful YA horror novel The Girl from the Well and its sequel The Suffering. Based on a Japanese ghost story, The Girl from the Well follows a murder victim who wanders the Earth freeing the spirits of other murdered souls and taking the lives of their killers. Okiku remains restless until she meets Tark, a moody teen with evil trapped beneath his skin by a series of tattoos. Only Okiku can see that Tark is not the monster that lives within him, but freeing him from this demon would also mean killing its host.

Frankly in Love  David Yoon

Two friends. One fake dating scheme. What could possibly go wrong?

High school senior Frank Li is a “Limbo”—his term for Korean-American kids who find themselves caught between their parents’ traditional expectations and their own Southern California upbringing. His parents have one rule when it comes to romance—“Date Korean”—which proves complicated when Frank falls for Brit Means, who is smart, beautiful—and white.
