Student Weekly Book Recommendation

The Fountains of Silence
Ruta Sepetys

Madrid, 1957. Under the fascist dictatorship of General Francisco Franco, Spain is hiding a dark secret. Meanwhile, tourists and foreign businessmen flood into Spain under the welcoming guise of sunshine and wine. Among them is eighteen-year-old Daniel Matheson, the son of a Texas oil tycoon, who arrives in Madrid with his parents hoping to connect with the country of his mother's birth through the lens of his camera. Photography—and fate—introduce him to Ana, whose family’s interweaving obstacles reveal the lingering grasp of the Spanish Civil War—as well as chilling definitions of fortune and fear. Daniel's photographs leave him with uncomfortable questions amidst shadows of danger. He is backed into a corner of decisions to protect those he loves. Lives and hearts collide, revealing an incredibly dark side to the sunny Spanish city.

Goodreads: 4.4 stars. Amazon: 4.2 stars. The IMC has one print copy available. Sora- available on audio and ebook.

PAPERCUT

As the semester winds down a few reminders about printing:

- 350 pages per semester (this will be reset on January 24)
- You can ONLY check your balance on a laptop or PC (not a Chromebook)
- If you printing packets for finals- 15 page limit. This includes back-to-back. It will not alert you, it just won’t print. Split up print job into 2 or more print jobs. (ie. A 20 page print job = pages 1-10 and 11-20).

Remember to return your library books before semester finals. Overdue books will be fined for replacement costs on January 27.
