If applications become necessary before we return to school, I will communicate to you how electronic copies for the application can be delivered. At this time, we will be placing the due date on hold until we have further information about when we will return to school. Contact Mrs. Tinus at tinuje@hamilton.k12.wi.us if you have any further questions.

March is Women’s History Month

Newbery Honor and Coretta Scott King Award-winning author Renée Watson teams up with poet Ellen Hagan in this YA feminist anthem about raising your voice.

Jasmine and Chelsea are best friends on a mission—they’re sick of the way women are treated even at their progressive NYC high school, so they decide to start a Women’s Rights Club. They post their work online—poems, essays, videos of Chelsea performing her poetry, and Jasmine’s response to the racial microaggressions she experiences—and soon they go viral. But with such positive support, the club is also targeted by trolls. When things escalate in real life, the principal shuts the club down. Not willing to be silenced, Jasmine and Chelsea will risk everything for their voices—and those of other young women—to be heard.

These two dynamic, creative young women stand up and speak out in a novel that features their compelling art and poetry along with powerful personal journeys that will inspire readers and budding poets, feminists, and activists.

Dear Charger Families and Friends,

Club Action and Science Club at Hamilton High School have teamed up with 39 zoos and one aquarium across the continent to bring awareness to gorilla conservation by recycling mobile phones and handheld electronics. These devices contain a mineral, called coltan, which is mined from habitats of endangered gorillas and other African forest species. By recycling these devices, the metals can be reused, reducing the pressure on these habitats and protecting gorillas. Here in Wisconsin, keeping these devices out of landfills helps to protect our water supply. We will achieve so much good together – collective conservation impact – through this campaign that wraps up mid-April.

Working together, we definitely can do it!

There are collection bins at Hamilton in Room S5, Room 8, and the IMC. We will also have a collection station set up at the admissions table at each home basketball game. Look for the gorilla footprints leading you to the station!

Thank you for answering the call to save gorillas in the wild!

All the Bright Places
By Jennifer Niven

Netflix movie - released on February 28!

Theodore Finch is fascinated by death, and he constantly thinks of ways he might kill himself. But each time, something good, no matter how small, stops him.

Violet Markey lives for the future, counting the days until graduation, when she can escape her Indiana town and her aching grief in the wake of her sister’s recent death.

When Finch and Violet meet on the ledge of the bell tower at school, it’s unclear who saves whom. And when they pair up on a project to discover the “natural wonders” of their state, both Finch and Violet make more important discoveries: It’s only with Violet that Finch can be himself—a weird, funny, live-out-loud guy who’s not such a freak after all. And it’s only with Finch that Violet can forget to count away the days and start living them. But as Violet’s world grows, Finch’s begins to shrink.

The movie- stars Elle Fanning and Justice Smith.

Student Weekly Book Recommendation

Color Outside the Lines: Stories About Love
Edited by Sangu Mandanna

This modern, groundbreaking YA anthology explores the complexity and beauty of interracial and LGBTQ+ relationships where differences are front and center.

When people ask me what this anthology is about, I’m often tempted to give them the complicated answer: it’s about race, and about how being different from the person you love can matter but how it can also not matter, and it’s about Chinese pirate ghosts, black girl vigilantes, colonial India, a flower festival, a garden of poisons, and so, so much else. Honestly, though? I think the answer’s much simpler than that. Color outside the Lines is a collection of stories about young, fierce, brilliantly hopeful people in love.

Student Weekly Book Recommendation

February is Black History Month
Read one of these new books!

Say Her Name
Poetry by Zetta Elliott

Say her name and solemnly vow
Never to forget, or allow
Our sisters’ lives to be erased;
Their presence cannot be replaced.
This senseless slaughter must stop now.

Award-winning author Zetta Elliott engages poets from the past two centuries to create a chorus of voices celebrating the creativity, resilience, and courage of Black women and girls. Inspired by the #SayHerName campaign launched by the African American Policy Forum, these poems pay tribute to victims of police brutality as well as the activists championing the Black Lives Matter cause. This compelling collection reveals the beauty, danger, and magic found at the intersection of race and gender.
